◆ The application documents(including notarized document) listed above must be submitted during the application period. However, the Apostille Confirmation Document (or consul authentication letter or ministry of education accreditation letter) can be submitted before admission after they are issued by the relevant governmental institutions.

◆ Graduates, and expected graduates must submit their original diploma(s) and transcript(s). However, if the original diploma(s) and transcript(s) are required for an Apostille Confirmation, then they can be submitted at a later time together with the Apostille Confirmation Document.

◆ Additional explanation on the submission of 'highest diploma,' 'highest transcript,' and 'Apostille Confirmation Document'

- Graduates who obtained their degree/diploma from China: one of the following should be submitted: (1) official documents that confirm the authenticity of their degree and academic transcript issued by the China Academic Degrees & Graduate Education Development Center (<http://www.cdgd.edu.cn>) or (2) original certificates issued by Korean Consulate(s) in China and/or Chinese Consulate(s) in Korea.
- Graduates who obtained their degree/diploma in a country other than China: An Apostille Confirmation Document or Consul Authentication Letter can be submitted.

※ What is an Apostille Confirmation Document?

1. The Apostille Treaty is a multilateral agreement among certain member countries which makes it easier to mutually exchange and certify official documents. The Treaty facilitates the process of confirming official documents by the issuing government and guarantees their authenticity without complex processes including consulate verification in overseas countries.

- Official name: Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents
- Apostille member countries (see below)
